ARM PRIVACY NOTICE

Pursuant to the Nigeria Data Protection Act 2023 (NDPA), which guides all entities that collect, process, transmit and store data of natural persons to put in place policies and procedures that safeguard the rights of natural persons to data privacy, foster safe conduct of transactions involving the exchange of personal data and prevent manipulation of their data, ARM has responded in accordance to this regulation.

The following highlights our business requirements for collecting your personal data or information.

- To comply with applicable laws and regulations and to operate our business
- To respond to your enquiries about the ARM Group
- To improve our products and services
- To improve customer service delivery
- To send promotional emails about new products, special offers, or other information we think you may find useful using the email address you have provided
- To contact you occasionally for market research purposes. We may contact you by email, phone, fax or mail
- To deliver technical and functional management on our site
- To provide services in accordance with the agreement you are entering, or have entered into with us
- To obtain your personal data from third parties who possess the authority to disclose such in the event that your contact information has changed, and we are unable to communicate with you.

We only collect the information you give us and by patronising us, you have consented to the collection, processing, transmitting and storage of your personal data. We only require the minimum amount of personal information that is necessary to fulfil the purpose of your interaction with us; we don't sell it to third parties; and we only use it as the privacy policy describes.
